

Building a Culture of Peace in the GTA

Arts-based workshops

1) Animating The Golden Rule Workshop: A captivating journey through the world's various faith traditions through music, rap, drama and art. Also exploring the universal ethic of reciprocity "The Golden Rule."

Facilitator: Tina Petrova. Tina has been part of the film, television and stage scene for over 25 yrs. as an award winning actress, writer and producer/director. She is a graduate of Film Studies at Ryerson University and an alumni of the Canadian Film Centre.

2) Drama for Peacebuilding: A Warm Up Session, Trust Building/Group Building Games, Forum Theatre.

Facilitator: Frangess Kohi. Frangess holds a M.Ed in Adult Education and Community Development at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE). Has written, acted in and directed a variety of dramatic productions within an academic environment.

3) I am a Peace-Builder/Wounded Healer--Playing with Pictures: Use images to explore conflict and peacebuilding.

Facilitator: Jessica Outram. Jessica is a Master's candidate at OISE, UofT in Adult Education and Community Development. Her research explores metaphor using Arts-Informed methods.

4) What is Peace? Playing With Words: Using poetry to explore definitions and concepts of peacebuilding.

Facilitator: Jessica Outram

To bring these workshops in your community, please send us an email us at community@interchange4peace.org!

Jessica Outram

Frangess Kohi

Tina Petrova